9. NOT MUCH ELSE NEEDED. THE RESORT PROVIDES WELL APPOINTED ROOMS WITH FRIDGE, MICROWAVE, ETC. WE BRING LOTS OF SUNSCREEN AND SHORTS AND TEES. THAT'S ALL WE NEED.
10. flip flops  shorts  sunglasses  tanning lotion  snacks  towels  cash
11. umbrella against the sun, beach accessories, sun lotion, time, mosquito repellent (!!!) in the summer time
12. shorts, beach towel, beer, and food.
13. Sun screen and lots of friends to enjoy your stay. You will spend ALOT of time enjoying the beach.
14. good mood and a good behavior
15. What else do we need?? :-)
16. A few changes of clothes, but nothing fancy. It's truly a relaxing vacation where you don't need to dress up. Flip flops, shorts and tank tops.
17. towels, fav pillow, camera, camera camera.
18. Volleyball, dancing shoes, kayak, beach towel, shorts, hat, sunscreen, sand toys if you have kids,
19. Some free space in the luggage for shopping goods, notebook to plan activities and nothing else.
20. Besides swimsuits, bring comfortable walking shoes!
21. A good book to read on the beach.
22. A good book(s), a music source and plenty of liquids. Munchies are a must also.
23. SUN LOTION...BEACH TOWELS
24. A small radio, I ship down a box full of spices and mixes so I don't have to pay for too much at the publix as they are very expensive.

25. Cameras, sport items such as baseball gloves, beach toys, lawn chairs.
26. Lots of books and sunscreen
27. Smiles.  Beach chair and beach towels.  Flip flops and sun hat
28. shades, sunscreen and a beach towel
29. sunscreen, sunglasses, and do not wear flip flops on beach, go bare foot. the sand gets under flip flops and its so abrasive it will wear your skin raw
30. Causal clothes only
31. Our favorites are books and walking shoes. The beach offers a long distance for walking and is also a good place to relax and to read a book. And important is also to have a lot of money with you. The shopping Malls are close to the Outrigger !!
32. That's about all you need unless you venture off the premises, then you might want some shorts, etc.
33. Camera, suntan lotion, cell phone, clothes, rental car, and my credit card.
34. Hats, sunscreen, books to read.
35. Not much....I pod, reading material & tanning lotion
36. Sunscreen, books, beach hat. Soft-sided cooler to take on the beach.
37. Books, camera, playing cards and appetite.
38. Extra media cards for your camera, and bring bubble wrap to protect the beautiful shells you will find and want to bring home. (Best shells are found in the early morning. Be the first one out there!)  Also, don't forget to bring water shoes incase the sting rays are there!
39. sandals, sneakers and golf shoes - A few T-shirts and pairs of shorts and that's about all I need (and a hat) - You'll get a longer answer from my wife to be.
40. Flip flops, sunscreen and a few good books.
41. A little extra money for a glass of wine to watch the beautiful sunset.
42. Besides our swimsuits we bring our fishing poles, books to read and a positive attitude.
43. Shorts, shirts. Very casual
44. We bring hats, lotion and bug spray.
45. not much
46. Shorts, t-shirts, flip-flops, hats, sun tan lotion.
47. Bring plenty of sunscreen. Casual clothes are a must. A camera to catch a sunset.
48. Suntan lotion, casual clothes (shorts, t's and sport shirts, flipflops and tennies).. Even nicer places to eat only require nice sporty clothing. Anything you have forgotten can be purchased at the Publix nearby or at the shops down by the pier.
49. camera
50. 2 or 3 paperbacks and sun screen!
51. Bring something to read while you are enjoying one of the Outrigger's cabanas.  Don't forget to bring you camera. You will want to take a picture of the beautiful sunsets.
52. Shorts, Hawaiian shirts and sandals
53. We stay in the beach front rooms and stock the fridge!
54. flip flops and a camera.

55. Our beach chairs for the beach; food/drink since we usually have an ocean front room; books to read, iPod to listen to when walking the beach. We also try to bring family and friends!!!!
56. Camera - I have many pictures of the beautiful sunsets and I still take more pictures every year.
57. Sun screen, big hats, good books and sun dresses
58. beach towels, beverages for in the room, books to read on the beach. Cooler to carry beverages to beach and keep them cold. "nackie-type foods"
59. WE FOUND OUT WE BRING WAY TOO MANY CLOTHES..ONCE WE ARE HERE WE WEAR ONLY SWIM SUITS FROM MORNING TIL NITE... JUST PUT ON A WRAP/ COVER UP TO GO SHOPPING AT FORT MEYERS BEACH..YOU DON'T NEED MUCH..
60. Camera - to catch the AWESOME sunsets!
61. I always pack too much. We like the fact that you can go casual at any restaurant. Lots of swimsuits. Wearing T-shirts with a logo of where you are from is always a conversation piece. We are usually there during the NCAA basketball tourney. Ohio State wear always brings up conversation.
62. semi-dressy outfit for evening wear  water shoes for the beaching
63. BEACH CHAIRS, COOLER AND LOTS TO READ.
64. Resort wear: capris, tops, jackets, sandals, my music.
65. A variety of all types of clothing, a good book.
66. Not much :-)
67. only t shirt and shorts
68. swimsuits, sunglasses, and the sun that's all that's needed----everything else is there
69. Suntan lotion, toothpaste, mouthwash, regular toiletries, beach coverup & clothes to wear when not in swimsuit.
70. Sun tan lotion, shampoo, our own soap, clothes and not much else. We travel light.
71. Camera
72. CASUAL clothing and a book.
73. A towel. The pool towels are terrible! You should think about using better towels and have people check them out. Then if they do not return them, they will be charged a fee.
74. Bring attire for both beach and restaurants.
75. Sunscreen  Sandals  Blender  Frozen Limeade  Tequila  Triple Sec  Limes  Oh yeah, the kids come along too.
76. sun block and beach toys for the kids
77. sunglasses, camera and sun screen

78. Comfortable shoes for walking along the shore, sunscreen, a book for relaxing on the patio.
79. That should be it....
80. Cover-ups for the swimsuits - that's it. Tons of suntan lotion in 50SPF!
81. food/drink if you plan to use the kitchen
82. Light clothing & a warm jacket or two.  Small rain umbrella or two.  Rent a car at the airport if not driving in.  If driving in bring beach chairs and umbrella.
83. Flip Flops, shorts and t-shirts, that's all you need.
84. Sunscreen, comfortable sandals, casual clothes.
85. One formal suit  enough underwear to last several days
86. I brought my best friend, comfortable shoes and a dept card. :)
87. Not alot! With luggage being so expensive when traveling, we pack the minimum and buy many things when we arrive. Liquids, lotions, sun screen etc  We will bring shorts, shirts and flip flops that's about it!
88. A flexible cooler - fits in luggage and easy to carry to the beach.
89. We go to the store either when we arrive or the next day early to stock up on food for our breakfasts/lunches. There is a Publix nearby that will have everything you need. We don't want to leave the beach view until dinner time.
90. Leisure, cool clothing. Breakfast food and snacks. Eat dinner out and enjoy the area  Hat and sunscreen necessary
91. That is all you need!!
92. Beach shoes, sandals, shorts, one set of casual clothes, personal items and toiletries
93. Baseball glove, baseball hat, camera, and sunscreen
94. A light hooded sweat shirt to keep the afternoon sun off and keep warm after sunset. Bring very casual, loose and comfortable clothing. Even business casual is too formal.
95. golf clubs  warm clothing  sunscreen/hats  first aid kit  comfortable shoes  baseball gloves, frisbees  knapsacks
96. Beach chairs, umbrella, flip flops and sunscreen. That is all you need!
97. Good walking shoes! Lots of sunscreen. Call to see if u can have an early check in, esp after a long drive, 19 hrs, like we had!!!
98. Not much!!!!
99. small, empty plastic containers to safely transport fragile shells back home

100.	Lots of suntan lotion and hats.
101.	sweatshirts for cool nights
102.	sunblock, bug spray
